

Projects funded by the Youth in Action Granting Program, 2018

Boys and Girls Club of the Foothills

Project: Youth Adventure Camp, $2,000

Details: This grant supports an adventure camp in the Crowsnest Pass for youth ages 12 to 15.

Canadian Bhutanese Society

Project: Youth physical exercise initiative, $1,000

Details: To introduce youth to physical activities like karate and yoga.

Catholic Central High School, Lethbridge

Project: Outdoor classroom planters and composting station, $1,000

Details: To promote environmentalism on campus by encouraging composting and gardening.

Claresholm Health Foundation

Project: Concrete Dreams Skateboarding Project, $2,000

Details: Youth in the community receive instruction and mentorship from local skateboarding aficionados, with an emphasis on skills, safety, and being responsible members of the skateboarding community.

Crowsnest Pass Women's Resource Centre

Project: Teen activity hub, $2,000

Details: To create a drop-in teen hub at the local recreation facility

Napi Friendship Association

Project: Nature learning play space, $2,000

Details: This grant supports an outdoor play environment intended to address physical, intellectual, creative, and emotional needs of children, families, and members of the community.

Warner School

Project: School greenhouse construction project, $2,000

Details: To introduce students to agriculture and small business through curriculum based around a school greenhouse.